Hang [noun]

- the assembly and installation of artwork before an exhibition
- the after show, after hours gathering where all the fun is

Award-winning vocalist, lyricist and producer, Georgia Mancio, returns with her second Hang - a series of stunning bespoke collaborations and new writing featuring the cream of the UK's jazz, latin and improvised music scenes in one of Europe's most iconic venues.

From last year's landmark recording, Songbook, with co-writer Alan Broadbent and their subsequent performances in Europe and the US, to her iconic ReVoice! Festival, work with luminaries Ian Shaw, Liane Carroll, Bobby McFerrin and Kate Williams, to nominations in the Urban Music, Parliamentary and British Jazz Awards, Georgia is an artist of boundless creativity and dedication in constant evolution.

2018 is also Georgia's 18th anniversary as a professional musician. To mark this joyous coming of age she has crafted 4 unique shows:

Wed 10 Oct 8.30pm £15 - Triple Bill of duos

A celebration of female writers with pianist/composer Nikki Iles, a homage to vocalist/songwriter Abbey Lincoln with harpist Alina Bzhezhska and fascinating character studies in new songs co-written with pianist/composer Tom Cawley

Thu 11 Oct 8.30pm £15 - Somos Unidos

An uplifting repertoire celebrating language, diversity and internationalism with accordionist/pianist Maurizio Minardi, cellist Shirley Smart, flautist Gareth Lockrane and seven-string guitarist Luiz Morais.

Fri 12 Oct - Georgia Mancio Quartet (7pm £15) + Trish Clowes (10pm £15)

A deliciously eclectic set of jazz standards, originals and songs from Italy and South America with pianist/composer Kate Williams, bassist Steve Watts and drummer Dave Ohm.

Exclusively for the late show they are joined by widely acclaimed saxophonist and composer Trish Clowes in a debut collaboration.

"[Mancio] has everything covered – technical mastery, expressive range and a remarkable versatility" The Observer 4****
