Finding Home

Kate Williams' Four Plus Three meets Georgia Mancio

"a triumph of integrity and classy musicality"
The Guardian 4*
"meticulous and poignant … with a depth transcending mere 'song"
London Jazz News
"the immaculate Mancio in collaboration with the brilliant pianist, composer and arranger, Kate Williams… presented an emotionally-charged set of originals"
Jazz Views

The award-winning team of two of the UK's leading artists: pianist/composer Kate Williams (Bobby Wellins, Stan Sulzmann, Pete Hurt Jazz Orchestra) and vocalist/lyricist Georgia Mancio (Alan Broadbent, Ian Shaw, ReVoice! Festival) in a collection of songs, old and newly co-written, arranged for trio, string quartet and voice, linked by the many concepts of Finding Home.

Kate's stunning compositions and arrangements reveal their deeper narrative with Georgia's searing lyric writing and emotive live performances. From the tragedy of the refugee crisis to romantic spoken word groove, reworked classics from Chile, Brazil and the Great American Songbook and a focus on the natural world, loss and hope: Finding Home prompts many questions and delivers multiple answers.

Their eponymous album - also featuring classical guitarist John Williams - was released in summer 2019 to wide acclaim with an extensive accompanying Arts Council tour with dates including Frome Festival, Watermill Jazz, Bolton Abbey and Colchester Arts Centre.

Kate Williams (piano), Georgia Mancio (voice), Oli Hayhurst (bass), David Ingamells (drums)
John Garner (violin), Marie Schreer (violin), Francis Gallagher (viola), Sergio Serra (cello)

Finding Home Webpage
Watch Georgia / Kate
www.kate-williams-quartet.com www.georgiamancio.com

Artwork by Alban Low, Photo by Carl Hyde